

COMMUNITY RELATIONSSUBJECT: POLICY AGAINST WORKPLACE DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

The District is committed to providing a work environment that is free from all forms of discrimination and conduct that can be considered illegally harassing, coercive or disruptive. Discrimination or harassment based on race, color, national origin, creed, age, genetic information, marital status, familial status, domestic violence victim status, religion, disability, pregnancy-related condition, arrest (not pending), criminal conviction, military or veteran service status, or any other characteristic or basis protected by applicable law is strictly prohibited and will not be sanctioned or tolerated. The Board further recognizes that preventing and remedying illegal harassment and discrimination is essential to ensure a nondiscriminatory environment in which employees can work productively.

This policy prohibits unlawful workplace discrimination and harassment based upon any characteristic or status protected by applicable law other than sexual harassment (including sexual orientation, gender identity and the status of being transgender). Complaints or concerns about workplace sexual harassment are addressed separately in the District's Policy Against Workplace Sexual Harassment (Policy 612I).

Prohibited Conduct

Harassment on the basis of any protected characteristic is strictly prohibited. Harassment is considered verbal or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual because of race, color, national origin, creed, age, genetic information, marital status, familial status, domestic violence victim status, religion, disability, pregnancy-related condition, arrest (not pending), criminal conviction, military or veteran service status, or any other characteristic or basis protected by applicable law. This includes, but is not limited to: any conduct that has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment; has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance; or otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment. This prohibition extends to conduct by school employees, officers, board members, volunteers, students and non-employees such as agents, contractors and vendors, which occurs on school grounds or at school-sponsored events, programs or activities, including those that take place at locations off school premises or in another state.

Harassing conduct includes, but is not limited to: epithets, slurs, or negative stereotyping; threatening, intimidating or hostile acts; and written or graphic material that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual or group and that is placed on walls or elsewhere on the District's premises, circulated in the workplace, or on the internet.

Discrimination is the act of treating or allowing similarly situated employees or applicants for employment to be treated differently with respect to hiring, firing, promotion or any other term or condition of employment because of any characteristics or bases protected by applicable law or this Policy.

The following procedure must be followed when there is any indication that harassment or discrimination has taken, or is taking, place:

- An employee who raises a question or concern regarding harassment or discrimination should be encouraged to file a written complaint with a Compliance Officer. - All complaints about suspected harassment or discrimination will be investigated, whether that information was reported in oral or written form.
- All complaints of harassment or discrimination will be investigated by the Compliance Officer, or a designee of the Compliance Officer, Superintendent of Schools or the Board of Education (which may include a third party). The investigation will include, but not be limited to, interviewing the complaining party, the accused, any supervisors, and any other personnel, as necessary, to obtain sufficient factual information upon which to make a determination.
