

PUBLIC NOTICE LANGUAGE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the Board of Education of the Levittown Union Free School District (“Levittown UFSD”) will hold a public hearing on October 28, 2026 at 7:30pm, at the Levittown Memorial Education Center, Large Board Room, 150 Abbey Lane, Levittown, New York 11756, to consider the adoption of resolutions:

(1) implementing a real property tax exemption pursuant to New York Real Property Tax Law § 458-a(11) that will extend a 100% exemption to the primary residence of fully disabled veterans located within the Levittown UFSD, as determined by the Nassau County Department of Assessment, commencing with the 2027 assessment roll, which will be utilized for the 2027-28 school tax levy;

(2) implementing a real property tax exemption pursuant to New York Real Property Tax Law § 471 that will extend an exemption of up to 50% of the assessment of a primary residence of the surviving spouse of a police officer killed in the line of duty located within the Levittown UFSD, with eligibility to be determined by the Nassau County Department of Assessment, commencing with the 2027 assessment roll, which will be utilized for the 2027-28 school tax levy;

(3) implementing a real property tax exemption pursuant to New York Real Property Tax Law § 466-a that will extend an exemption of up to 50% of the assessment of the primary residence of the surviving spouse of a volunteer firefighter or volunteer ambulance worker killed in the line of duty located within the Levittown UFSD, with eligibility to be determined by the Nassau County Department of Assessment, commencing with the 2027 assessment roll, which will be utilized for the 2027-28 school tax levy;

(4) modifying the real property tax exemption pursuant to New York Real Property Tax Law §467(1)(b)(4) for senior citizens of limited income residing within the Levittown UFSD, to increase the maximum exemption to 65% of the assessment of the primary residence of a senior citizen with an annual income of less than $47,000 and the minimum exemption to 5% of the assessment of the primary residence of a senior citizen with an annual income of at least $57,500, but less than $58,400, pursuant to a sliding scale, with eligibility to be determined by the Nassau County Department of Assessment, commencing with the 2027 assessment roll, which will be utilized for the 2027-28 school tax levy.